

Humboldt Institute
for INTERDISCIPLINARY
Marijuana Research

Improving the economic, social, physical, and environmental health of individuals and communities through the interdisciplinary scientific study of cannabis

A Social Justice Summit Event

THE OTHER SIDE OF MURDER MOUNTAIN

5:00-7:00 PM, FEBRUARY 27, 2019

KATE BUCHANAN ROOM

The Netflix series “Murder Mountain” depicts “a wild, lawless place” where “vigilante justice and outlaw culture ... resembles America’s Wild West past.” Our panel will discuss these and other representations of culture, place, and the cannabis industry in Humboldt County. The film is just a starting point for discussion. Audience members will be engaged by the discussion, whether or not they have seen the series.

MODERATOR:

DR. DOMINIC CORVA, CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF CANNABIS POLICY

PANELISTS:

DR. DEIDRE PIKE, HSU DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION

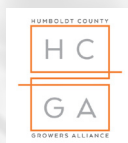

HANK SIMS, LOST COAST OUTPOST

TERRA CARVER, HUMBOLDT COUNTY GROWERS ALLIANCE

EUGENE “ED” DENSON, HUMMAP LAWYER

For more information: Contact Dr. Josh Meisel, HIIMR Co-Director: meisel@humboldt.edu

HSU is an AA/EEO institution. Persons who wish to request disability related accommodations should contact the event organizer at 826.3364 (mcc@humboldt.edu), as soon as possible.

HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY

