University Senate

Resolution to Update the Language in the Faculty Handbook Regarding Early Tenure

XX-24/25-FAC — November XX, 2024 — First Reading

RESOLVED: That the University Senate of Cal Poly Humboldt recommends the following changes to Appendix J be forwarded to the General Faculty for a vote of acceptance or rejection; and be it further,

RESOLVED: That these changes become effective at the beginning of the 2025 fall semester; and be it further

RESOLVED: That adding details to Appendix J regarding early tenure will help to clarify the expectations for faculty and provide guidance to personnel committees.

RESOLVED: That department criteria and standards documents should be reviewed and updated as necessary to align with this policy.

RATIONALE:

These updates to the early tenure guidance have been requested by UFPC and others on campus who have found there to be gaps in guidance in Appendix J. Furthermore, very few departments have an early tenure and promotion policy. This proposed policy establishes minimum expectations but allows for departments to further specify or create more rigorous expectations.

Appendix J

IV. RETENTION, TENURE AND PROMOTION (RTP)

Updated Language

- F. The normal probationary period is six (6) years of full-time service (including credited service). 13.3
- 5. The President may award tenure to a faculty unit employee before the normal (6) year probationary period (13.3, 13.19) if the following criteria are met:
 - a) Such consideration is initiated by the faculty unit employee's department or equivalent unit or by the faculty member with the knowledge of their department or unit.
 - b) The faculty unit employee demonstrates clear evidence that they have achieved, before the normal probationary period, a record of accomplishment that meets or exceeds the following criteria and levels of performance:
 - i. The faculty unit employee has worked a minimum of one academic year at a full teaching load typical of their department (for example, teaching 24 WTUs after teaching two years of a contractual reduced load). This policy recognizes that there could be exceptions to what is considered a normal teaching load.
 - 1. The faculty member unit employee's department chair or initiating unit personnel committee (IUPC) shall clarify what is considered a "typical full-time teaching assignment" for faculty in their department. Any permanent teaching workload reductions should be clearly stated.
 - ii. The faculty unit employee has demonstrated a minimum of "Good" in both of the performance areas of Scholarly/Creative Activities and Service based on departmental requirements for the normal (6-year) probationary period.

- iii. The faculty unit employee's department or equivalent unit may specify more rigorous requirements for early tenure or promotion but may not exceed the requirements for "Excellent" levels of performance in any category as defined in the department or equivalent unit's RTP criteria and standards.
- c) The length and breadth of the faculty unit employee's service are sufficient to provide a high expectation that the prior patterns of achievement and contribution will continue.
