

Have you experienced sexual misconduct?

some examples include: sexual assault, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, rape, dating/intimate partner or domestic violence, harassment based on gender nonconformity, stalking, cyber-stalking, and retaliation

You have options for support!

Confidential Reporting

Campus Advocate Team

- (707) 445-2881
- 24-HR free and confidential support
- Staffed by North Coast Rape Crisis Team
- No information is released to anyone without your consent
- Available to meet on campus
- Works with, not for, the university

Other Confidential Reporting Options

These groups listed below do not have a duty to report, except in limited circumstances regarding child abuse and neglect.

Humboldt Domestic Violence Services

- (707) 443-6042
- 24-HR support

Counseling & Psychological Services*

- (707) 826-3236
- 24-HR support
- *May also need to report to the Title IX Office if it's determined that a perpetrator poses an imminent threat to the broader campus community

Telling a Campus Employee

If you decide to tell a campus employee, including a student employee, they are required to notify the Title IX Coordinator (see exceptions to the left). The Title IX Coordinator will then contact you to discuss options for support and accountability.

Other Reporting Options

Title IX and Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation Prevention Office

- titleix@humboldt.edu, (707) 826-5177
- Can discuss possible options for accountability and supportive measures, such as mutual restrictions on contact between parties, course-related adjustments, and leaves of absence

University Police Department

- (707) 826-5555, 9-1-1
- Available 24/7
- Confidentiality can be requested, but is not guaranteed

FYI: people should not be deterred by reporting any incident out of concern they will be disciplined for related drug, alcohol, or other university policy violations. Campus safety is our primary concern!
