

EcoSeries Spring 2023 Schedule

Thursdays 4pm (PST/PDT) in WDFS 258

Zoom meeting Link: Click Here

Meeting ID: 833 2459 1192

Passcode: WildTalk

Date	Speaker & Topic	Presentation
Jan 26	Kara Moore-O'leary - Building an evidence-based approach to waterbird habitat management in National Wildlife Refuge wetlands.	Virtual
Feb 9	Margarete Walden - Predicting effects of climate change on vertebrate ectotherm growth: Leveraging legacy data and overlooked field techniques.	In Person
Feb 23	Diana Guzmán-Colón - Genetic similarities of invasive small Indian mongoose in Puerto Rico are associated with proximity to modified landscapes: Implications for wildlife management.	Virtual
Mar 9	Bob Bailey - Sea Otters in Oregon: The Road to Return.	Virtual
Mar 23	Rob Blenk - Waterfowl populations in the Central Valley: An agent-based approach	In Person
Apr 6	Paula Leticia Perrig - Role of pumas and native camelids in the conservation of Andean condors.	Virtual
Apr 20	Cancellation - See Scott Sillett's talk in Fall '23.
May 4	David Sinn - [Tentative] Squid, scales, and career-path tales: Where an interest in wildlife might lead.	In Person

If attending in person, please be prepared to present a COVID-19 vaccination card with proof of initial vaccination and booster or a negative test result from the last 72 hours, if requested by Humboldt staff. We appreciate your commitment to supporting Cal Poly Humboldt in maintaining a safe environment for our students and employees. Should this requirement be a concern, please reach out to WiGSS as soon as possible.